ARSENIO P TALINGDAN, AA'51, AB'53, MPA' 55

Founder & 1st National President, UP Alumni Association in America

March 30, 1930 - April 20, 2018

In the Preface of his book, UPAAA Through the Years (2005)

"The University of the Philippines holds the proud distinction of nurturing the best minds and talents in our country. Since its establishment in 1908, the UP has – for better or for worse – produced topnotch politicians, technocrats, academics, lawyers, doctors, nurses, scientists, artists, and other professionals. Many of our alumni eventually built their careers in other countries. But despite the distance and the years, they have not forgotten their Alma Mater and have continued to maintain relations both with the University and with fellow alumni. The University of the Philippines Alumni Association in America (UPAAA) is one such example of UP alumni who have remained supportive of UP. ...On a personal note, I congratulate the author for coming out with this book. As founding president of UPAAA, he has been tirelessly documenting various aspects of the UPAAA's history. I am sure that this book will become a treasured memorabilia among our alumni in North and South America. FRANCISCO NEMENZO 18th UP President Aug 6, 1999-Feb 9, 2005

On behalf of President Danilo L. Concepcion who is now on official travel abroad, I wish to extend the UP administration's deepest condolences to the family and friends of Dr. Arsenio Talingdan.

The success and vitality of the UPAAA today is probably the best and most enduring testament to his achievements and contributions to the UP community. Through his labors and those of his fellow alumni, the flame of UP's ideals of service to the nation has been kept brightly burning across the Pacific, well into another generation of UP alumni.

We share your prayers and your warm memories, and I will ensure that he is given a fitting tribute in our media.

Thank you all for your efforts to sustain Dr. Talingdan's vision. President Concepcion looks forward to meeting all of you again at your next homecoming this year.

Yours sincerely,

Hello, Dr. Emer:

So nice to hear from you again.

indeed, we all were together at past UPAAA conventions and posed together at pics and listened to your talks on UP as you reported on its status and problems during your incumbency as our UP President. You dubbed yourself "The Centennial President" due to the @ 100 celebrations of alma mater UP and some of its colleges — so many memories of your presence and UPAAA pics together

Thanks for your sentimental message as we all grieve the passing of our beloved UPAAA Founding President Dr. Arsenio Talingdan.

Dear Nelsie,

Thanks for the updates. I am saddened to learn about the passing of Dr. Talingdan. Condolence to his family. He was a student of our late mother, Mrs. Nicolasa Purugganan Barros, in Abra HS - way back when (just after WWII). Sometime in the early '90s, they had a chance to meet in San Diego when he came to visit. He left us, UP alumni in America, quite a legacy.

Best regards,

Dina
