

About the Donor of $5 K in 2018 through UPAAA to benefit UP Mindanao

ROSALIA ORDONEZ, UP GN'67, RN, MEd

Rosalia, nicknamed Sally, is a daughter of Flaviana Ordonez, a Public Health Nurse for several years. She obtained her Elementary and High School education at Pantukan, Davao del Norte and Nursing Education at UP Diliman and UP-PGH'67. In the United States she obtained her Master in Nursing Education (MEd) at Teachers College, Columbia University in NYC in 1981.

Nurse Sally worked at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, NYC and at the Dept of Veterans Affairs, New York Harbor Healthcare System. She specialized in Intensive Care Nursing (MICU, SICU, CCU) and later as Nurse Educator. She retired as Chief of Patient Services Education covering three sites, New York, Brooklyn and Staten Island.

With her Nursing education background and extensive Nursing experience she has written articles, such as:

Integrating Traditional Beliefs and Modern Medicine: Filipino Nurses' Health Beliefs, Behaviors, and Practices Home Health Care Management & Practice. Dec 2004, Vol.17, Number 1, Sage Publications.

Monitoring the Patient with Supraventricular Dysrhythmias
Nursing Clinics of North America. Vol. 22, No. 1, March 1987.

She was a contributor to Critical Care Communique, AACN (American Association of Critical Care Nurses)- NYC Chapter Newsletter.

Thank you to Ms. Rosalia 'Sally' Ordonez for her generosity in donating through the Project Agapay of UPAAA much needed funds for the laboratory improvement in UP Mindanao.